Logos and Marks

A man wearing a fedora and suspenders sits on a wooden chair, holding a lasso aloft. The scene is monochromatic blue. A quote is overlaid on the image.

Even if you're on the right track, you'll get run over if you just sit there.

PMS Black

PMS 129 U

Primary Logomark: Two-Color

The full color version of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation logomark is the primary logomark of the identity system.

It is strongly recommended that the primary version of the logomark be used whenever possible.

One-Color or Reversed:

(WRMPPF_Logo_Horizontal_Black.eps)

(WRMPPF_Logo_Horizontal_Reversed.eps)

PMS Black

Primary Logomark: One-Color

When constraints prevent the use of the primary logomark, one-color versions are used as alternatives.

The one-color logomarks are especially useful on materials such as glass, metal and fabric.

Correct Usage:

Incorrect Usage:

The following are unacceptable ways of reproducing the Primary Logomark. (i.e. stretching/skewing or removing pieces)

Logos and Marks

Primary Logomark: Background Control

When placing the logo on a background, careful consideration should go into which logo to choose. Colors and graphics can easily overpower the logomark.

Primary Logomark: Unacceptable Usage

The correct usage of the logomark is essential in keeping a consistent brand. The examples on this page illustrate unacceptable uses of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation logomark.

Logos and Marks

Primary Logomark: Vertical Logomark

When size or orientation presents a challenge, a vertical version of the primary logomark may be used. The same rules and guidelines apply to the vertical logomark as the primary logomark.

Two-Color:

Alternative Mark (Camera Cowboy): One-Color

The Camera Cowboy mark may be used when the brand is already in context. The Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation name should be present when using this mark.

The following are unacceptable ways of reproducing the Secondary Mark. (i.e. sketching/skewing, unapproved colors or rotating)

Alternative Mark: Unacceptable Usage

The correct usage of the logomark is essential in keeping a consistent brand. The examples on this page illustrate unacceptable uses of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation logomark.

Logo and Marks: Minimum Size

Spacing is an important consideration for the placement of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneer Foundation marks. When done correctly, it provides focus on the logo for greater emphasis and impact.

Brand Colors

A vintage-style photograph of a man in a dark suit, white shirt, and dark bow tie, wearing a fedora hat. He is smiling and looking towards the camera while riding a bicycle. The bicycle has a wire basket on the front containing a white box. The background is a warm, orange-toned street scene with buildings and a street sign. The entire image is overlaid with a semi-transparent orange filter. A quote is centered over the image in a white, elegant script font, enclosed in large white quotation marks.

*“
We are all here for a spell. Get all the good laughs you can.

Color Palette:

Our colors are what give us personality. In order to build a recognizable brand the same colors should be used consistently across the board in similar applications. An approved palette of primary and secondary colors can be used to add visual interest to all materials.

Paper Specifications: Butcher Extra White

Established in 1871, the French Paper Company is a sixth generation, family-owned, all-American company located in Niles, Michigan.

Will Rogers materials are printed on French Dur-O-Tone Butcher Extra White paper. Based on the everyday utilitarian papers that made America great, French Dur-O-Tone paper offers customers an honest, hard-working alternative to overly-slick coated sheets.

French Dur-O-Tone Butcher Extra White comes in three weights. Primarily 80# Text and 80# Cover are used for Will Rogers materials.
