2017 PIONEER OF THE YEAR

Welcome

On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation, thank you for attending the 2017 Pioneer of the Year Dinner. This is our 76th annual dinner, and this evening's honoree, Cheryl Boone Isaacs, is a most-deserving one.

The Pioneer of the Year award is bestowed upon an esteemed and respected member of the motion picture industry whose corporate leadership, service to the community and commitment to philanthropy is exceptional.

Tonight we honor a true Pioneer in our industry, an individual who demonstrates extraordinary leadership and vision not only in her role at the Academy, but also as a member of the entertainment community at large—Cheryl Boone Isaacs.

The Pioneers Assistance Fund is the only industry program that provides both short-term and Quality of Life grants (long-term) to veterans of the motion picture industry who are encountering an illness, injury, or life-changing event.

Please enjoy yourself tonight, as we pay tribute to a true pioneer. Thank you for donating generously to our industry charity—hopefully you will never need to call on the Pioneers Assistance Fund, but if you do, we will be here to help.

Pioneering Spirit

CHERYL BOONE ISAACS was re-elected for a fourth term as president of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences on August 2, 2016 by the organization's Board of Governors. She has represented the Public Relations Branch as a governor for 24 years. During her tenure as a governor, she served as first vice president, vice president, secretary and treasurer as well as president of the Academy Foundation, the educational and cultural arm of the Academy. In 2012, Boone Isaacs produced the Academy's prestigious 4th Annual Governors Awards.

Isaacs has been a respected motion picture marketing executive for over 30 years. For the last nine years, CBI Enterprises, Inc. has consulted for companies such as MTV Films, Paramount Pictures, Universal Pictures, Lionsgate, The Weinstein Company and Sony Entertainment. Her clients have included Troika Pictures, Andrew Lauren Productions, Linden Productions, Laika Entertainment, Film Bankers International, KTLA, Success Films, Robson Entertainment, Rangeland Productions, and Cube Vision. She has consulted on marketing efforts for such films as The Call, The Artist, The King's Speech, Precious: Based on the Novel 'Push' by Sapphire, Spider-Man 2 and Tupac: Resurrection.

During her tenure as president of theatrical marketing for New Line Cinema, from 1997 to 1999, she developed and executed campaigns for such films as Austin Powers: The Spy Who Shagged Me, the company's highest grossing film at that time, The Wedding Singer and such critically acclaimed motion pictures as Wag the Dog, Boogie Nights and American History X. Largely through the efforts of Ms. Isaacs and her marketing team, New Line was one of only two studios to have four films—Lost in Space, Blade, Rush Hour, and Pleasantville—opened No. 1 at the box-office in 1998. Rush Hour's $33 million opening was, at the time, the largest in company history.

Ms. Isaacs and her New Line creative executives distinguished themselves as one of the best teams in the business earning four Key Art Awards, the motion picture industry's highest honor bestowed on creative advertising campaigns, for Rush Hour (best theatrical comedy trailer), Blade (best action-adventure trailer), Pleasantville (best drama television spot) and Lost in Space (best internet advertising.)

Prior to joining New Line Cinema in 1997, Ms. Isaacs had served as executive vice president, worldwide publicity, for the Motion Picture Group of Paramount Pictures. In 1995 and 1996, she orchestrated acclaimed publicity campaigns for Forrest Gump and Braveheart, each of which won multiple Academy Awards, including Best Picture. In addition, the campaigns were recognized by the Publicists Guild of America as the "Best" in 1995 and 1996.

From 1990 to 1994, Isaacs was senior vice president, publicity, and held the title of vice president, publicity between 1986 and 1990. During her tenure at Paramount she publicized the launch of such blockbusters as First Wives Club, Mission: Impossible, The Firm, Ghost, The Addams Family, Coming to America,

Fatal Attraction, and the Beverly Hills Cop trilogy. Isaacs joined Paramount in 1984 as director, publicity and promotion, West Coast, and was quickly promoted to executive director one year later.

In addition to her long tenure at Paramount Pictures, Isaacs served as director of advertising and publicity for The Ladd Company where she worked on The Right Stuff, Police Academy and Once Upon a Time in America. Prior to that, she spent five years at Melvin Simon Productions (The Stunt Man, Love at First Bite, Porky's) where her last position was vice president, worldwide advertising and publicity. She began her career in 1977 as a publicist at Columbia Pictures.

Boone Isaacs is currently an adjunct professor at Chapman University's Dodge College of Film and Media Arts and was previously served as a filmmaker-in-residence for the University. She was an adjunct professor at USC Cinema and Television School's Peter Stark Producing Program; Columbia College Chicago, and Mount Saint Mary's College. She continues to guest lecture at USC, UCLA, Loyola Marymount, Bryn Mawr Film Institute, and Soka University of America.

She was a member of the Advisory Board for the Turks & Caicos International Film Festival and also served as a juror. She has been on the Advisory Board of Hollywood Reporter's Key Art Awards. She continues to serve as an Advisory Board member for the Los Angeles nonprofit, Theatre Of Hearts/Youth First where youth find their voice through arts education.

Ms. Isaacs was a member of the Corporate Board of the Motion Picture and Television Fund and served as Secretary for three years. Boone Isaacs was a consulting producer on the Emmy-nominated KTLA special, "Planet LA."

A Night to Remember

DAVID OYELOWO

David Oyelowo is a multiple Golden Globe and Emmy-nominated actor and producer who has quickly become one of Hollywood's most sought-after talents.

Oyelowo can currently be seen in Amma Asante's romantic drama, A United Kingdom, which he also produced and stars opposite Rosamund Pike. Based on a true story, the film follows Prince Seretse Khama of Botswana (Oyelowo) and Ruth Williams (Pike) whom married in 1948, in the face of fierce opposition from their families and the British and South African governments and a time when apartheid was being introduced. Seretese and Ruth defied all and in doing so their love altered the course of African history.

He will next be seen in the third film in the Cloverfield series, produced by J.J. Abrams and released by Paramount Pictures on October 27th, 2017; as well as the lead in the as-yet untitled Nash Edgerton film, co-starring Charlize Theron, Joel Edgerton, Thandie Newton and Amanda Seyfried.

Oyelowo gained international acclaim in 2014 starring as Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. in Ava DuVernay's Selma. For his performance, Oyelowo earned a Golden Globe Award nomination for Best Performance by an Actor in a Motion Picture – Drama and an Independent Spirit Award nomination for Best Male Lead and the film received an Oscar® nomination for Best Motion Picture of the Year.

Most recently, Oyelowo starred opposite Lupita Nyong'o in Mira Nair's Queen of Katwe, earning a NAACP Image Award nomination for Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Motion Picture. Additional film credits include Christopher Nolan's *Interstella*r; J.C Chandor's A Most Violent Year; Paramount Pictures' Captive, which he also produced; Lee Daniels' The Butler; Steven Spielberg's Lincoln, with Daniel Day-Lewis; the critically acclaimed independent drama, Middle of Nowhere, which earned him NAACP Image Award and Independent Spirit Award nominations; Jack Reacher, opposite Tom Cruise; Lee Daniels' The Paperboy, opposite Nicole Kidman; the historical drama, Red Tails, produced by George Lucas; Disney's The Help, opposite Emma Stone and Viola Davis; and Kevin MacDonald's The Last King of Scotland, opposite Forrest Whittaker and James MacAvoy.

On the small screen, Oyelowo starred in the HBO film, Nightingale, earning a Golden Globe nomination for Best Performance by an Actor in a Limited Series or Motion Picture Made for Television and two Emmy Award nominations – one for Outstanding Lead Actor in a Limited Series or a Movie and one as an Executive Producer in the category of Outstanding Television Movie.

Oyelowo has collaborated with HBO on several other occasions, including a starring role in Kenneth Branagh's 2006 production of As You Like It, in which he played 'Orlando' opposite Bryce Dallas Howard; and as the lead in the mini-series, Five Days, for which he won a Satellite Award for Best Actor in a Miniseries or a Motion Picture Made for Television. In 2008, Oyelowo starred in the acclaimed adaptation of the Alexander McCall Smith novel, The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency, directed by the late Anthony Minghella.

His additional television credits include his work in the UK starring on the popular BAFTA Award-winning series, Spooks/MI:5, and Masterpiece Theatre's Small Island in 2009, for which he won the Royal Television Society Award and was nominated for a BAFTA TV Award for Best Actor. He also appeared in ABC's 2008 Golden Globe-nominated production of A Raisin in the Sun, alongside Sanaa Lathan, Sean Combs and Phylicia Rashad. Oyelowo's vocal talents can be heard in the multiple award-winning Disney animated series, Star Wars Rebels, in which he plays Agent Kallus.

Also an accomplished and acclaimed stage actor, Oyelowo most recently appeared opposite Daniel Craig as the title character in the New York Theatre Workshop Off-Broadway production of Othello, directed by Sam Gold, earning stellar reviews.

He got his start on stage in 1999 with The Royal Shakespeare Company, playing roles in Ben Jonson's Volpone, as the title character in Oroonoko (which he also performed in the BBC radio adaptation) and Shakespeare's Antony and Cleopatra. Oyelowo gained national recognition for his performance as King Henry VI in the RSC's 2001 production, when he was cast as the first black actor to play an English king in a major production of Shakespeare. The performance was critically acclaimed and Oyelowo won the 2001 Ian Charleson Award, which is presented in recognition of the best classical stage performances in Britain by actors under the age of 30, and earned an Evening Standard Theatre Award nomination. Additional theatre credits include his acclaimed performance in Richard Bean's The God Botherers at the Bush Theatre and the lead role in the Off-Broadway production of Aeschylus' Prometheus Bound, in which he made his New York stage debut. In 2006, Oyelowo made his stage directorial debut with the revenge tragedy, The White Devil, which was produced by his own theatre company, Inservice.

Oyelowo was appointed Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE) in the 2016 New Year Honours for services to drama.

Congratulations Cheryl Boone Isaacs and Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers — What A Special Evening!

NATO and CinemaCon are pleased to join the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation in recognizing Cheryl Boone Isaacs for her extraordinary leadership and dedication to the industry. We are pleased to support this evening's dinner in her honor, as exhibition and distribution leaders come together to celebrate the moviegoing experience.

The Pioneer of the Year dinner allows us to unite as an industry to raise money for a great cause. The Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation is a very important charity to NATO and CinemaCon, and we are thrilled to welcome Cheryl to the list of Pioneer of the Year honorees. Cheryl's passion for charitable causes matches her passion for celebrating and honoring the very best in the motion picture industry that she so ably represents. This honor coming in the final year of her historic tenure as President of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences is especially appropriate.

We look forward to continuing this great tradition in future years!

Congratulations, Cheryl.

2017 Pioneer of the Year Dinner

THE PIONEERS ASSISTANCE FUND

IS A PROGRAM OF THE WILL ROGERS MOTION

PICTURE PIONEERS FOUNDATION THAT PROVIDES

FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AND SUPPORTIVE COUNSELING

TO ELIGIBLE MEMBERS OF THE MOTION PICTURE

ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY (EXHIBITION,

DISTRIBUTION AND TRADE SERVICES).

2017 PIONEER OF THE YEAR

Helping their own ...

THE PIONEERS ASSISTANCE FUND has traveled a rewarding path since its beginnings in 1939 as a group of industry personalities who gathered once a year to meet old friends socially. The stated goal of the organization remains the same: "To establish a self-perpetuating fund to assist pioneers of the motion picture industry who find themselves in need; the assistance to consist of direct financial aid, medical care and temporary business subsistence during periods of unemployment and unfortunate circumstances to eligible applicants."

In 1951 the organization formalized its purpose, its meaning and its direction, and was determined to provide a helping hand to all veterans of the motion picture industry who needed financial aid and assistance.

The rest is history. Since that time, the Pioneers Assistance Fund (PAF) has used available funds to further its outstanding record of helping industry veterans in need of financial or medical aid. Understandably, many of the cases must be handled in a delicate manner and confidentiality is of the utmost importance. Often, concerned members of the PAF play a vital role in seeking out those who need assistance but who are not yet aware of this program, an effort through which Pioneers truly are helping their own. When an individual is identified as one in need of help, the Pioneers Assistance Committee moves into action, selflessly devoting hours into an investigation of the person's background and unique situation.

The PAF works in such an unassuming manner that its acts of quiet generosity are often hidden, eclipsed by the desire to maintain anonymity and preserve the dignity of those whom it helps. The PAF has sought little publicity and has shied away from the limelight. The appreciation of those in need is the most treasured reward possible, and the letters of thanks are most heartwarming.

The PAF wants all industry veterans who fall on tough times to know that they have a ready and efficient source of aid in times of emergency and distress.

"If you want to be successful,
it's just this simple.

Know what you are doing.

Love what you are doing.

And believe in what you are doing."

Pioneers Assistance Fund

The Pioneers Assistance Fund (PAF) program provides financial assistance and supportive counseling for film industry veterans nationwide in trade services (IATSE), exhibition, and distribution who are experiencing hardship due to illness, accident or underemployment.

The PAF staff of skilled social workers is knowledgeable about agencies and services nationwide and is here to provide information, regardless of eligibility.

We also provide a variety of brochures and publications to guide members through life issues.

Social Service Consultations: When Life Is Challenging

HOW WE CAN HELP:

- Supportive counseling
- Health insurance advice
- Elder care guidance

We also provide local referrals for:

- Health care professionals
- Home health agencies
- Transportation services
- Low income housing

- Bereavement counseling
- Education
- Accessing free/low cost services in your area
- Vocational counselors
- Attorneys
- Conservators
- Financial advisors

Whether you are in need financial assistance or not, call for a free and confidential consultation. All consultations are conducted with holistic regard for each person's unique emotional, medical, and financial status.

Assistance Programs: When Income and Assets Are Limited

SHORT TERM FINANCIAL GRANTS

Depending on eligibility, we can assist with financial grants that pay for unexpected medical costs and/or assistance with cost of living expenses. Visit wrpioneers.org for a full list of services, or call one of our social workers today to find out how we can help.

SALAH HASSANEIN MEDICAL GRANTS

Medical grants can pay for the following services (minimum of 5 years employment in the film industry):

- Dental
- Medical fee and co-pays
- Hearing aids
- Medications

- Psychotherapy
- Health insurance premiums
- Medical equipment

BERNIE MYERSON EMERGENCY GRANTS

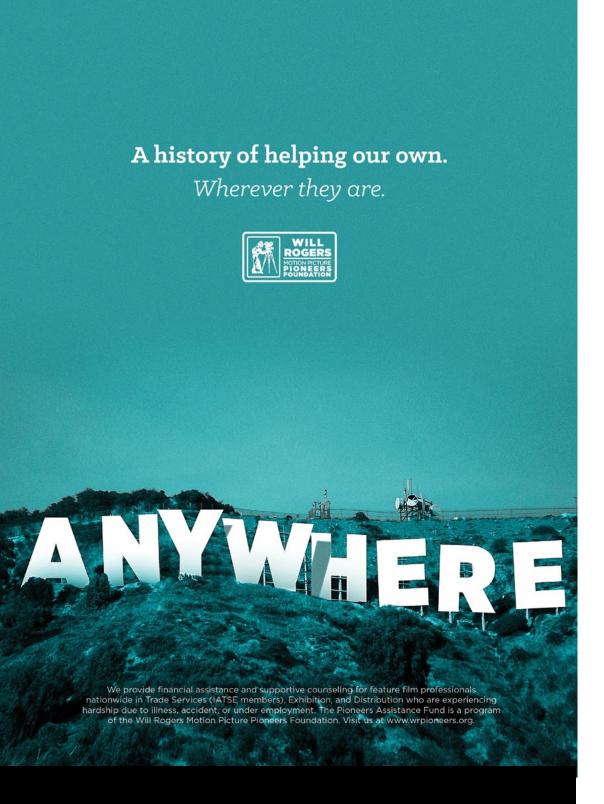

Emergency grants can pay for the following (Minimum of 10 recent years of employment in the film industry):

- Rent and utilities
- Food and household necessities
- Moving expenses

- Burial or cremation fees
- Vocational assistance

THE TOM SHERAK PIONEER GRANT

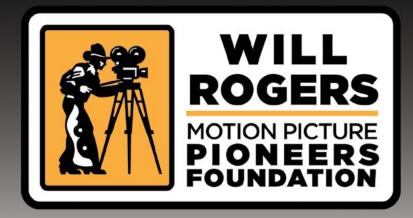

Recently named after Tom Sherak, film industry icon and past president of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation, this grant provides long-term assistance for industry veterans with a minimum of 25 years in exhibition and distribution. Please call for eligibility of program guidelines.

"It's great to be great,
but it's greater to be human."
—Will Rogers
