Presented by MGM/United Artists Releasing and Amazon Studios
CONGRATULATES OUR FRIENDS

MICHAEL G. WILSON
AND
BARBARA BROCCOLI

ON RECEIVING THE 2022
PIONEER OF THE YEAR AWARD
2022 Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation

Pioneers of the Year

Michael G. Wilson & Barbara Broccoli
The complete Pioneer of the Year Tribute Journal will be available for download on our website, www.wrpioneers.org/2022dinner. Thank you to all our sponsors.
On behalf of the Board of Directors of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation, thank you for attending the 2022 Pioneer of the Year Dinner. The Pioneer of the Year award is bestowed upon esteemed and respected members of the motion picture industry whose corporate leadership, service to the community and commitment to philanthropy are exceptional.

Tonight we have the privilege of honoring two Pioneers in our industry, James Bond franchise architects, Michael G. Wilson and Barbara Broccoli. Their contributions to the film industry as producers, including their outstanding support of the exhibition community and cinematic experience, have made them true pioneers in the field.

All proceeds from tonight’s event will help support our Pioneers Assistance Fund. This program is the only one of its kind in the industry, providing both short-term and long-term financial grants to members of the motion picture industry who are experiencing an accident, illness or injury. Additionally, our social workers provide guidance, counseling, referrals and education to those who need it most. This charity and the support it provides are among the greatest pillars on which our beloved industry is built.

Thank you for supporting our industry charity so generously over the years and please enjoy yourself tonight, as we pay tribute to Michael and Barbara. It is their lifelong embodiment of kindness, generosity and care for others to which we should all aspire.

Chairman of the Board
Michael G. Wilson and Barbara Broccoli of EON Productions are producers of the James Bond films. Wilson joined EON Productions in a legal-administrative capacity in 1972 and was later named special assistant to the producer on The Spy Who Loved Me. He became executive producer on Moonraker and continued with that credit on the following two films. He co-wrote For Your Eyes Only, Octopussy, A View To A Kill, The Living Daylights and Licence To Kill. He became producer with his step-father Albert R. Broccoli on A View To A Kill continuing with The Living Daylights and Licence To Kill. Wilson is chairman of EON Productions.

Barbara Broccoli began working in the production and casting departments at EON Productions in 1978. She became executive assistant on Octopussy, assistant director for A View To A Kill and associate producer with Tom Pevsner on The Living Daylights and Licence To Kill.

Wilson and Broccoli produced the hugely successful GoldenEye together, followed by the next eight Bond films: Tomorrow Never Dies, The World Is Not Enough, Die Another Day, Casino Royale, Quantum Of Solace, Skyfall, Spectre and No Time To Die.

Together, Wilson and Broccoli have produced and executive produced several independent film projects including: The Rhythm Section, The Silent Storm, Radiator and Nancy. Broccoli also produced the critically acclaimed Film Stars Don’t Die In Liverpool. Broccoli’s latest film, Till starring Danielle Deadwyler and Whoopi Goldberg and directed by Chinonye Chukwu, is due for release in October 2022.

Broccoli has also produced The Band’s Visit (2017 Broadway) winner of 10 Tony Awards including Best Musical, Cyprus Avenue (2018 The Public Theater, NYC), ear for eye (2018 Royal Court Theatre, London) and is currently producing Sing Street (2022 Huntington, Boston).

Wilson is a leading expert on 19th century photography. He and his wife Jane Wilson founded The Wilson Centre for Photography – a facility for research on the history, aesthetics and preservation of photographs. Wilson is Honorary Vice President of the Science Museum Foundation, a Fellow of the Science Museum London, a Trustee for the Carnegie Institution for Science, Harvey Mudd College and Santa Barbara Museum of Art.

Broccoli is BAFTA’s (British Academy of Film and Television Arts) Vice President for Film, President of the UK’s National Youth Theatre, Director of Time’s Up UK and a Trustee of Into Film UK – a film education charity working with young people aged 5-19.

Wilson and Broccoli are Directors of the Dana and Albert R. Broccoli Foundation and are co-founders of the London Screen Academy (LSA) for which Broccoli also serves as a Governor, and Wilson is the Vice Chair of the Board of Trustees, Day One Trust.

In 2008, Broccoli and Wilson were appointed Officers of the Order of the British Empire (OBE), in 2013, they received the BAFTA Award for Outstanding British Film for Skyfall and in 2014 they were honoured by the Producers Guild of America with the David O. Selznick Achievement Award in Theatrical Motion Pictures. In 2022, they were appointed Commanders of the Order of the British Empire (CBE) for services to film, drama, philanthropy and skills and in June 2022 they were awarded BFI Fellowships, the highest honour bestowed by the BFI.
Michelle Yeoh is an internationally recognized Malaysian-born actress who rose to fame in 1990s Hong Kong action films before moving on to shatter convention and star in a myriad of globally acclaimed blockbusters. She has appeared in more than 70 feature films and television series, with her filmography showcasing a collection of iconic roles, including Ang Lee’s Crouching Tiger Hidden Dragon 1 & 2, Rob Marshall’s Memoirs of a Geisha, Roger Spottiswoode’s Tomorrow Never Dies, Danny Boyle’s Sunshine, and Jon Chu’s Crazy Rich Asians, the highest-grossing romantic comedy in the U.S. in the past 10 years. After appearing in James Gunn’s second installment of the Guardians of the Galaxy franchise, Yeoh returned to the Marvel universe in Destin Daniel Cretton’s Shang-Chi. In March 2022, she starred in the Daniels’ mind-bending, critically acclaimed Everything Everywhere All At Once, which has since become A24’s highest grossing film.

In television, Yeoh was most recently seen as Emperor Philippa Georgiou in CBS’ Star Trek: Discovery. Next, she will be reuniting with Destin Daniel Cretton in Disney+’s American Born Chinese and starring in Netflix’s upcoming limited series, The Witcher: Blood Origin. Other upcoming credits include James Cameron’s Avatar sequels, Paul Feig’s The School for Good and Evil and voicing roles in the animated comedy features, Minions: The Rise of Gru and Paramount Pictures’ Paws of Fury.

In 2022, TIME named Yeoh one of the world’s “100 Most Influential People” on its annual list. In 2016, she was appointed Goodwill Ambassador to the United Nations, focusing on raising awareness and mobilizing support for environmental issues.
Sam Smith

Multi-platinum GRAMMY®, BRIT, Golden Globe and Oscar winning artist and songwriter Sam Smith is one of the most celebrated musical artists to emerge in recent history, amassing over 40 billion career streams. Born in London in May 1992, Smith (they/them) began singing at a young age. Their first breakthrough was in 2012 as a featured artist on the Disclosure song, “Latch.” Smith’s debut album, In The Lonely Hour, soon followed in 2014. Certified 2x platinum in the USA and 8x platinum in the UK—the album earned four GRAMMY® Awards and positioned Smith as the hallmark voice of their generation.

In The Lonely Hour was the biggest selling UK male debut in the SoundScan era and went on to sell over 13 million adjusted albums worldwide. In 2015, Smith set a GRAMMY® record—winning a total of four awards, the most ever received by a UK artist following the release of a debut album. Smith was awarded Best New Artist, Best Pop Vocal Album and their single, “Stay With Me,” won awards for Record and Song of the Year, garnering a RIAA Diamond certification. In 2015, Smith joined the James Bond film canon when they wrote and performed “Writing’s On The Wall,” the theme song for the Bond film Spectre, winning both a Golden Globe and an Academy Award® in 2016.

Smith’s 2017 platinum-selling sophomore album, The Thrill Of It All, debuted at No. 1 on the Billboard 200 and also topped international charts. “Too Good At Goodbyes,” the album’s first single, became a global smash and debuted at No. 1 on Billboard’s Digital Song Sales chart.

Smith’s critically acclaimed third album Love Goes was released in 2020, and signaled the start of a new chapter and also reflected their two past beautiful, if not tumultuous, years. What followed was a string of singles crafted with producers whom Smith admired including Max Martin, ILYA, Shellback and Stargate. “Dancing With A Stranger,” a seductive R&B track with Normani was a critical and commercial success, as was the dance-pop hit “How Do You Sleep?” The album also included “Diamonds,” a dazzling dance floor anthem and “My Oasis,” a cross-continental collaboration with Burna Boy.

Smith is currently at work on their fourth studio album to be released on Capitol Records in 2023.
The Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation proudly bestows its highest honor on

Michael G. Wilson and Barbara Broccoli

Dear Michael & Barbara,

We couldn’t be more proud to honor both of you with the Pioneer of the Year award.

We’ve known you for decades and watched with awe as you brilliantly produce one of the longest running and most successful franchises in the history of our industry. You’ve done it with class, smarts, and tenacity.

You both embody the word PIONEER.

We know that Cubby would be so very proud of you.

Here’s to the journey ahead!

With love,

Gerry & Erik

2022 Pioneer of the Year
“It’s great to be great, but it’s greater to be human.”
—Will Rogers
BIG SCREENS.
BIG HEARTS.

Providing supportive services to individuals in theatrical exhibition, distribution and vendors exclusive to either sector, encountering illness, accident or injury.

WRPioneers.org/BigHearts
“Eventually you reach a point when you stop lying about your age and start bragging about it.”
—Will Rogers
The Pioneers Assistance Fund (PAF) program provides financial assistance and supportive counseling for film industry members nationwide in exhibition, distribution and vendors exclusive to either sector who are experiencing hardship due to illness, accident or underemployment.

The PAF staff of skilled social workers is knowledgeable about agencies and services nationwide and is here to provide information, regardless of eligibility.

We now offer an educational video series, called INNERMISSION, to share expert knowledge and skills on a larger scale, in an accessible way for everyone.

Social Service Consultations: When Life Is Challenging

How we can help:

- Supportive counseling
- Health insurance advice
- Elder care guidance
- Bereavement counseling
- Education
- Accessing free/low cost services in your area

We also provide local referrals for:

- Health care professionals
- Home health agencies
- Transportation services
- Low income housing
- Vocational counselors
- Attorneys
- Conservators
- Financial advisors

Whether you are in need of financial assistance or not, call for a free and confidential consultation. All consultations are conducted with holistic regard for each person’s unique emotional, medical, and financial status.

When Income and Assets Are Limited

Short Term Financial Grants
Depending on eligibility, we can assist with financial grants that pay for unexpected medical costs and/or assistance with cost of living expenses. Visit wrpioneers.org for a full list of services, or call one of our social workers today to find out how we can help.

Sala Hasssanein Medical Grants
Medical grants can pay for the following services (minimum of 5 years employment in the film industry):

- Dental
- Psychotherapy
- Medical fee and co-pays
- Health insurance premiums
- Hearing aids
- Medical equipment
- Medications

Bernie Myerson Emergency Grants
Emergency grants can pay for the following services (minimum of 5 years employment in the film industry):

- Rent and utilities
- Burial or cremation fees
- Food and household necessities
- Vocational assistance
- Moving expenses

The Tom Sherak Pioneer Grant
Recently named after Tom Sherak, film industry icon and past president of the Will Rogers Motion Picture Pioneers Foundation, this grant provides long-term assistance for industry veterans with a minimum of 25 years in exhibition and distribution. Please call for eligibility of program guidelines.
